

JAMES CARNEY,
Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.
BEING permanently located in Fayette, Howard county, Mo., respectfully tenders his profession services to the citizens of Howard and the surrounding counties. A great many of the most respectable references could be given, but as this has always appeared to him too much like a shirant carrying a pass, he chooses to go on his own book, and submits himself to the generous and high minded citizens of Missouri with high confidence.
Office next door immediately west of the Howard Hotel. [Jan. 8, 1842.]

AN ACT
To provide for the call of a Convention.
Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows: § 1. There shall be, at the general election for the members of the General Assembly, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-four, a poll opened, at the several election precincts, for taking the sense of the people of this State upon the expediency of calling a Convention to amend, alter or make a new Constitution of this State.
§ 2. It shall be the duty of the judges at the several election precincts in this State, at the election aforesaid, to cause a poll to be opened, which poll shall contain two columns: one to be headed 'Convention,' the other 'no Convention,' and they shall cause the vote of each individual voter to be set in appropriate columns.
§ 3. All persons qualified, by the Constitution and laws of this State, to vote for members of the General Assembly, shall be entitled to vote for or against said Convention.
§ 4. At the close of said election, at the several election precincts in this State, the judges thereof shall cause an abstract of the votes given, for and against a Convention, to be made out and certified to the clerks of the several county courts in this State, who shall make out an abstract of the votes, given for and against a Convention, in their respective counties, and transmit the same to the Secretary of State, in the same manner and with the like restrictions that they are required to certify the votes given for Governor, and Lieutenant Governor.
§ 5. The Secretary shall, on or before the first day of December, eighteen hundred and forty-four, make out and deliver to the Governor, a full and complete abstract of the votes given for and against a Convention who shall immediately cause the same to be published in at least two newspapers printed in this State.
§ 6. If a majority of the votes thus given shall be for a Convention, the Governor shall, in the month of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, order an election to be held at the several places of voting in this State, on the first Monday in August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, to elect delegates to a Convention, which election shall, in all respects, be governed by the existing laws regulating elections; and the persons elected shall, each, receive a certificate thereof accordingly.
§ 7. Each Senatorial district shall, and is hereby authorized to elect double the number to serve in said Convention, which said district shall be entitled by law to elect to the Senate of this State at the time of said election; and any person, eligible to a seat in the House of Representatives of this State, shall be eligible to a seat in the Convention.
§ 8. The persons who shall be elected, according to the provisions of this act shall, on the third Monday of November, 1845, meet and assemble at the City of Jefferson, in general convention, and shall have power to form and propose a new Constitution for this State.
§ 9. The Convention shall judge of its own privileges and elections, and the members thereof shall have all the privileges to which members of the General Assembly are entitled, and shall be allowed the same compensation; and said Convention shall have power to appoint such officers and give them such compensation as may be deemed right, and said compensation shall be obtained in the same manner as the members and officers of the General Assembly are allowed and paid.
§ 10. In cases of contested elections to the convention, the contending candidates shall pursue the same course and be governed by the same rules as are now prescribed by law in contested elections to the Legislature of this State.
§ 11. If a vacancy shall occur in the convention, the same shall be filled in the same manner as prescribed by law for filling vacancies of the Legislature of this State.
§ 12. The constitution formed by the convention shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, and a copy of the same shall by the Governor, be caused to be published in such manner as said convention shall direct.
§ 13. On the first Monday in August, 1846, at the several election precincts in this State, the judge thereof shall cause two columns to be opened: headed one 'for the constitution,' the other 'against the constitution,' and cause the vote of each voter to be set in the appropriate column, and certify the votes so given to the clerks of the several county courts, who shall certify the same to the Secretary of State, in the same manner and with the like restrictions that they are now required to certify the votes given for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of this State.
§ 14. All qualified voters of this State shall be entitled to vote for or against said constitution.
§ 15. It shall be the duty of the Governor to lay before the General Assembly, at their regular session, in the year 1846 the vote for ratifying or rejecting said constitution; and if it shall appear to the General Assembly, in joint meeting, that a majority of all the votes given have accepted the constitution, they shall, by joint resolution, declare said constitution to be the supreme law of the State, and the former constitution shall be abolished.
§ 16. It shall be the duty of the Governor, in the month of May, 1843, to cause this act to be published in three of the principal newspapers in St. Louis, and in all the other papers published in this State outside St. Louis, which publication shall continue for six successive weeks; the expenses of said publication shall be paid out of the general contingent fund.
This act to take effect from and after its passage.

CHEAP CASH STORE.
NEW GOODS.
JOHN D. PERRY & Co. have just received and are opening a large and well selected stock of seasonable goods, to which they respectfully call the attention of their old customers and friends and the public generally.
Desiring to confine their business as far as possible to cash transactions, their present stock will be disposed of at prices much lower than goods have usually been sold at in this and adjoining towns.
Their stock consists in part of—Cloths, cassimeres and vestings Brown and bleached domestics Sattinets and Kentucky Jeans
